THOSE WHO sow
DREAM joy
3RD Sunday in Advent

The Advent wreath is a well-known custom for the season. The wreath and winter candle-lighting amid growing darkness strengthen some of the Advent images found in the Bible. The unbroken circle of greens is a clear image of everlasting life, a victory wreath, the crown of Christ, or the wheel of time itself. Christians use the wreath as a sign that Christ reaches into our time to lead us to the light of everlasting life. The four candles mark the progress of the four weeks of Advent and the growth of light. Sometimes the wreath is embellished with natural dried flowers or fruit, or bows. Its evergreen branches lead the household and the congregation to the evergreen Christmas tree. In many homes, the family gathers for prayers around the wreath.

You may wish to create your own advent wreath at home, creating a circle with candles in your worship space, and welcome God's presence among you in a new way.

GATHERING

PRELUDE

Joy to the World

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her king;
let ev'ry heart prepare him room
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n and nature sing,
and heav'n, and heav'n and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Savior reigns!
Let all their songs employ, while fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat the sounding joy,
repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace And makes the nations prove The glories of His righteousness and wonders of His love
and wonders of His love and wonders, wonders of His love

WELCOME & ADVENT CANDLELIGHTING PRAYER

GATHERING SONGS: Lighting of the Advent Candle: Joy

Light one advent candle... And let it shine for hope Light one advent candle... And let it shine for hope Light one advent candle... And let it shine for hope Let it shine. Let it shine. Let it shine!!!

Light two advent candles and let 'em shine for peace...

Light three advent candles and let 'em shine for joy...

The Virgin Mary had a Baby Boy

The Virgin Mary had a baby boy
The Virgin Mary had a baby boy
The Virgin Mary had a baby boy
And they say that his name is Jesus

The angels sang when the baby was born
The angels sang when the baby was born
The angels sang when the baby was born
And they sang that his name is Jesus

Chorus

He come from the Glory,
He come from the Glorious Kingdom,
He come from the Glory,
He come from the Glorious Kingdom,
Oh yes, believer, oh, yes, believer
He come from the Glory,
He come from the Glorious Kingdom,
Instrumental Solo

The shepherds came where the baby was born
The shepherds came where the baby was born
The shepherds came where the baby was born
And they say that his name is Jesus

The wise men saw when the baby born
The wise men saw where the baby born
The wise men went where the baby born
And they say that his name is Jesus

Chorus

CHILDREN'S SERMON

GOSPEL – Luke 1:46-55

⁴⁶ And Mary said,

“My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,

⁴⁷ my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

⁴⁸ for you, Lord, have looked with favor on your lowly servant.

From this day all generations will call me blessed:

⁴⁹ you, the Almighty, have done great things for me and holy is your name.

⁵⁰ You have mercy on those who fear you, from generation to generation.

⁵¹ You have shown strength with your arm and scattered the proud in their conceit,

⁵² casting down the mighty from their thrones and lifting up the lowly.

⁵³ You have filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away empty.

⁵⁴ You have come to the aid of your servant Israel, to remember the promise of mercy,

⁵⁵ the promise made to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

You are invited to pray... through song, through silent reflection, through words, or anything else in between. May this song guide your prayers today. If you would like to lift prayers up so that others might pray, too, please do so in the comments section during our livestream worship.

The Advent Song

An Original Song by David Bugher

As I lay my weary head at your feet in the light of the cross I see the peace that lies ahead, the child who'll bring light to the lost Our living God, the Son of man as the prophet Isaiah foretold
The coming of the sacred lamb, with a promise of grace for the young and the old

*Chorus: And you lay me down
In my dreams, you keep awake peace
You lay me down
In the warmth of your light 'gainst the cold
You lay me down
And we try and we try but we need not try anymore
For soon, Immanuel shall be born*

Finding rest within the Lord, my peace and my spirit restored Angels waking by my bed, singing magnify the Lord
The living God, thy kingdom love, Jesus is coming soon Come!

Chorus

Instrumental Solo

And you lay me down... And you lay me down And you lay me down... Soon Jesus Christ is born

MEAL

We practice two sacraments in the Lutheran tradition: baptism and holy communion. These are celebrated in community, in public worship, where we can all participate and remember together: God is known for using ordinary earthly things (like water, bread, and wine) to make extraordinary promises (like forgiveness, salvation, healing and new life) to creation.

Today is a good reminder that this simple meal nourishes God's community across time and space - this is why we call it communion. We would rather be with you in person for the sacrament today, but we trust Jesus to show up beyond our limitations, to meet us in this separation with a Spirit that unites, to feed us with the bread of life who is our source and strength.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

We don't serve ourselves communion because there's something holy about that promise coming from outside our own bodies, a perfect declaration from God spoken to us by our neighbor: This is the body of Christ, given for you. This is the blood of Christ, poured out for you. If you are gathered together with others from your household, speak these words aloud when you serve each other. If you do not have someone in the room with you while you receive the sacrament, hear my voice as the external word of grace and invitation.

+ + Receive the Meal + +

The body of Christ, given for you. The blood of Christ, shed for you.

We pause for prayer and reflection, offering time to commune one another.

BLESSING

SENDING SONG Jesus, What a Wonderful Child

Jesus, Jesus
Oh what a wonderful child
Jesus, Jesus
so holy, meek and mild
New life, new hope the Child will bring Listen, to the angels sing
Glory, glory, glory
Let the heavens ring

See you next week for worship livestream at 5pm on Saturday and 8:45am & 10:45am on Sunday!

Thank you for worshipping with us today as we seek to be in community with one another while minimizing physical contact. As a gentle reminder, please continue to wash your hands for the recommended 20 seconds, wear a mask and create safe boundaries through physical distancing.

We know that God is with us and God is at work, wherever we worship. With coronavirus cases on the rise, we will continue worshipping online at this time. Please be vigilant and check your email, Facebook, etc., for additional notifications and updates in the coming weeks, and contact the church council (council@edgebrooklutheran.org) with any concerns.

Stay safe and be well! God's peace to you!!
